

BISHOP CECIL O. REID

Bishop Reid is a native of Greensboro, North Carolina. Accepting Jesus Christ in his third year of high school, he continued his education at North Carolina A & T State University. He is married to Evangelist Rhettta S. Reid and is the father of six children and eight grand children. Bishop Reid has served in the ranks as a Deacon, Lay Pastor, Senior Pastor, Teacher, Junior Bishop, General Overseer of the Church of God Apostolic, Inc., church builder, evangelist, foreign missionary, editor, printer, child care administrator, youth camp director, puppeteer, board member of the Greensboro Violent Crime Task Force, volunteer to the courts, member of Priest Pilot Association, cofounder of Christian Airman Fellowship (An association of pilots for domestic and global mission), and conference speaker. A successful commercial art business man, Author of Reclaiming Your Children, Why Be A Part of An Organized Church Or Organization, Penny Wise. Head and Tails, Gone, Women in Ministry, and others, and he holds a Certified Pilot certificate. Bishop Reid, with his built-in charisma, brings a vision for souls and unity in the body of Christ. His favorite saying: "I am great, and I work with great people." His favorite scripture is Hebrew 13:8; "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever."